

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Healing hands

What will I do as a Massage Therapist?

Massage Therapists learn the skills to relieve patients of pain. The Massage Therapist program provides the basic knowledge, tools, ethics, and behaviors that will enable you to successfully practice as a Massage Therapist in a variety of healthcare settings. Massage Therapists require a deep commitment to the service of others.

What careers are available after I graduate?

Almost everyone can benefit from skillful massage, and Massage Therapists can be found in almost any wellness setting, including physician offices, hospitals, medical centers, chiropractic offices, nursing facilities, outpatient clinics, health clubs, fitness centers, spas, resorts, hotels, cruise ships, pain management centers, and sports team facilities.
